WINTER/SPRING 2019

ANNUAL MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The Annual Meeting of the FHRPC was called to order at 6:05 p.m. by Secretary, Marvin Smith with 52 members present. The meeting was opened with a moment of silence for our departed brothers that passed this year, they were, Clarence L. Morgan (L), 03/05/15; Sandor J. Northcraft, 05/04/18; Louis E. Hartung, Jr., 05/05/18; David B. Lancaster, 09/10/18 and Robert H. Wainwright, 12/28/18 followed with the Invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance.

The meeting was held at CCTE in their auditorium on McMullen Highway in Cresaptown, MD. The topic of main interest was the property that's for sale on Eastman Road that butts up to our eastside boundary at MSR1.

EASTMAN ROAD PROPERTY

At the Annual Meeting February 2018 members asked the officers to look into the 7.9 acres that is for sale that butts up against the Morning Side Range's property line directly behind the 100 yard rifle and multi-purpose impact berms. Here are the facts from Real Property Search Maryland; Listed with Dennis Murray, Realtor; Property address, 11809 Eastman Road; Listed for $44,900; Accessed for $38,700 (considered to be high); On and off market for over 900 days; Last sold in 2002 for $40,000; Topic for discussion and possible action at February's 2019 Annual Meeting, members can decide with their vote if they want the officers to pursue the land acquisition.

ANNUAL MEETING FEBRUARY 2019

The discussion on the Eastman Road property was lively at the February 1, 2019 Annual Meeting thoughts brought up were: how we manage the purchase and or premium payments, size of the property, how were the property lines in accordance with ours, assessed value and yearly taxes. Those questions and more were answered by the officers. Jay Cochrane made a motion to pursue said property and not to exceed $35,000 as long as clear title can be acquired, motion seconded by Bob Barnard. Vote by members was an over whelming majority in favor with no descending votes.

RECENT UPDATE ON PROPERTY

As of the editing of this newsletter, we have been to a financial institution and on March 19th we were pre-approved and are moving forward.

We had a brief meeting on March 24th to have discussion and to schedule reaching out to another financial institution for a second quote and to be in accordance with each other.

Chris Bennett made our first phone call to Dennis Murray in the a.m. of March 25th to schedule a phone conference call. Dennis said that it was a long story but the property is not for sale at this time. Chris asked if anything could change his mind, and he said 1 million dollars. Chris asked that he contact us if he changes his mind.

It's a damn shame but keep your fingers crossed.

FHRPC CELEBRATES 75TH ANNIVERSARY

The Fort Hill Rifle & Pistol Club celebrates its 75th Anniversary this year, 1944-2019. Below is the recorded history of the organization. I hope you enjoy reading it as much as I did.

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

(Contributed by Norm White)

It was early 1942. The United States was at war with Germany and Japan and only months had passed since the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor. The Maryland National Guard had been mobilized into the United States Army and a State Guard had been created to replace them on the home front. In April, 1942, Maryland Governor Herbert O'Connor gave orders to organize the Reserve Militia of Maryland to be known as the Maryland Minute Men. Company 842, 8th Battalion was created. Joseph Ansel was appointed captain with John Woodyard as 1st lieutenant and Kirk Lathrum as 2nd lieutenant. Raymond Leighty was 1st sergeant. Others in the company were George Knotts, Jay Stimely, Robert Myers, Joseph McDonald and Fred Roberts. The Company-842 Minute Men trained Monday nights in the Penn Avenue School gymnasium. "Bib" Ranck, from the State Guard, was training instructor. The State Guardsmen were uniformed and were issued shotguns. The Minute Men eventually acquired uniforms and provided their own firearms, which were mostly deer rifles and 22-caliber guns. In event of emergency, the Minute Men were to perform guard duty at sensitive points in the city to prevent sabotage. The unit had field training exercises and marched in Memorial Day parades. I joined Company 842 in the fall of 1942. My firearm was a Stevens, single shot, 22-caliber rimfire rifle and, occasionally, a 45-70 trapdoor Springfield rifle.

We had 22-caliber firing practice at the National Guard Armory on Centre Street.

In June, 1944, Governor O'Connor deactivated the Minute Men and transferred all members to the inactive reserve. I was discharged with the rank of Private, First Class (PFC).

Following deactivation, some members of Company 842 wanted to continue their association and proposed forming a rifle club. For this purpose an organizing group was formed consisting of John Woodyard, chairman, Kirk Lathrum, vice chairman, Blair Ullery, treasurer, and Norman White, secretary.

The name Fort Hill Rifle Club was picked, not because it was named after the high school, but because it was a geographical location close to the homes of the members. Another group had already taken the Cumberland Rifle Club name.

Harry Morgan, of Frostburg, provided much help in organizing the club. A minimum of ten members was required to obtain a National Rifle Association charter and the charter was obtained in October, 1944. Early meetings were held at the home of Jay Stimely on South Street.

Other rifle clubs were being organized also. Leo Leasure was captain of Company 843, which became the Cumberland Rifle Club. David H. Durst was captain of Company 845, which became the LaVale Rifle Club. Henry R. Yates was captain of Company 848. He was also a member of the Frostburg Rifle Club, which was formed prior to the war.

Soon after organization of the clubs, a meeting was held at the Gunter Hotel, Frostburg, and the Western Maryland Rifle League was born. A pre-war group had been called the Allegany Rifle League but it was felt that a new name was needed. The Western Maryland League consisted of the Barton, Frostburg, Cold Spring-Westernport, LaVale, Cumberland and Fort Hill clubs. Later clubs were Avilton, Fort Ashby, Mountain Top-Oakland and Allegany Ballistics Lab. As years passed, these clubs lost their ranges or were deactivated and many of their shooters were taken into the Fort Hill Club, which alone persevered and prospered.

In Fort Hill's early years a search for a suitable indoor and outdoor range was conducted. One possibility for an indoor range was the abandoned south Cumberland glass plant, but too many problems existed there. A search for an outdoor range had the committee looking for a site along Williams Road at the Stegmaier orchards, but this also presented formidable problems.

A lucky break happened when Charles Simpson suggested that the O'Neal farm on Morningside Drive be investigated. The Cumberland Outdoor Club had been interested there but had given up after some work had been done. The range committee investigated and came to an agreement with the owner, Mrs. O'Neal. Construction commenced. Initially the range use was by permission, but a few years later the tract was purchased, and the rest is history. At the time of purchase, the club had few funds and money for the purchase was raised by member's donations covered by non-interest bearing notes. These notes were eventually paid off. At the time of purchase, Mrs. O'Neal had arranged for pulp wood to be cut by a contractor, and the club's arrangement with her was that specified tracts of trees adjacent to the range would be spared. Apparently the contractor ignored this arrangement and started cutting everything. The club threatened legal action and all cutting stopped.

The Fort Hill Club and Western Maryland League were incorporated with legal work done by attorney Thomas L. Richards at a very reasonable cost.

The Western Maryland League's first indoor range was constructed in the basement of a bowling alley located in LaVale at the intersection of the National Highway and Vocke Road. After a few seasons there another location was found in the basement of the Bowman's Addition Fire Hall. A range was constructed there and was used by both rifle and pistol leagues for many years. A final move was made to the National Guard Armory range on Brown Avenue.

The Fort Hill Club's outdoor rifle shooting was held on the Western Maryland League's Frostburg Club range off Hoffman Road. Practice shooting was done on the Morningside Drive range.

During the late 1940s or early 1950s the Western Maryland Pistol League was organized and competition outdoor matches were held at Frostburg and eventually at Morningside Drive. Indoor pistol matches were conducted at Bowman's Addition and later at the United States Navy Armory range.

Target firearms were scarce during the early days of the Fort Hill Club's rifle competition but a few Stevens model 416 rifles were obtained from the National Rifle Association. With these and a few Remington model 513T and Winchester model 75 rifles, matches were fired until Winchester model 52 rifles became obtainable in 1947 and 1948.

This completes my remarks on the origin and early days of the Fort Hill Club. I have had a lifetime enjoyment of the shooting sports and have endless satisfaction with my role as an officer in the club. I treasure the many friendships made over the years and it has been a pleasure to be associated with members of the shooting family. My best wishes for continued success of the Fort Hill Club – and stand firm for the Second Amendment.

GRAINS OF INFO

SR-50 matches will resume this upcoming season starting Monday, April 22nd and continuing every Monday but not including Memorial Day and Labor Day. Below is a recap of what, when and where. What is SR-50? Standing off hand using Small Bore rifle in .22 L.R. at 50 yards shooting at letter size paper target with the X ring, 10 ring and 9 ring which totals three inches in size, making up the black circle. With 8, 7, 6 and 5 rings making up the rest of the scoring target.

When: Match will start when you get there between 5 and 6:30 p.m. No shooters after 6:30 p.m. Total time takes one hour or less. I will supply targets, three targets per match, cost is $3.00 per match.....One sighter target up to 10 shots in a 10 minute period, first target 20 shots for score in a 25 minute period, second target 20 shots for score in a 25 minute period. Scoring of targets will be done by yours truly when completed. You will supply the 50 rounds of .22 L.R. ammo needed to complete the course of fire. You are not competing against any one, only yourself. Terrific practice for any shooter that participates in small bore silhouette or any off hand course of fire.

Muzzleloaders will meet every Monday starting April 1st thru October 28th starting at 4:00 p.m. We shoot informal matches or just casual shooting. We have lots of fun and make a lot of smoke. Over the season, members travel to nearby matches in Maryland, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, including the Pennsylvania and West Virginia State Championships and National Muzzleloading Rifle Association Territorial Matches where you can compete on the national level. You can shoot any muzzleloading black powder rifle, pistol and black powder cartridge rifle and pistol. Come out and join in the fun, always looking for new faces. For more information you can call Roger Rowe at 301-707-1840 or Mike Winter at 301-729-3540.

Benchrest (BR-50) League 2019 will meet every Wednesday starting May 1st thru September 25th drawing for the benches and setup will be 5:15 p.m. First match starts approximately 6:00 p.m. Each match cost $4 for members and $5 for non-members. CMP small arms firing school according to Executive Officer Danny Jackson the CMP has chosen FHRPC to host the upcoming CMP Small Arms Firing School for calendar year 2019. The dates selected are Saturday, September 28th for classroom and Sunday, September 29th for live fire. The class room part will be held at Baltimore Pike Firehall and for live fire our range at Warrior Mt. At this time details and arrangements are being worked out, for more information contact Executive Officer Danny Jackson, Jr. at 301-729-9343.

Work Party: 04/13/19 and 04/14/19 at Warrior Mt. Range the work to be targeted is to rebuild targets, renew target carrier rope hold-downs, renew counterweights, fill-in impact divots. Questions contact Dave Thompson @ 304-788-1346 or Roy Musselwhite @ 301-697-4963.

Orientation classes were held at MSR1 and WMR2 the FHRPC received 28 new members into their ranks, Saturday, March 9th with 14 new plebs present and Sunday, March 17th with 14 new plebs present. So if you see some new faces at the ranges introduce yourself and welcome these new members to our ranks. I'm sure they will have questions that you probably can answer. This brings the number of dues paying FHRPC members to 356 plus 128 life members for a total membership of 484 as of this newsletter.

All members take notice that full automatic firearms, "bump stocks", "hell fire triggers" or any device that simulates automatic firearm rate of fire are not permitted on FHRPC property. This procedural rule is located in the General Operating Procedures (GOP) on page six, rule number sixteen and was added to the GOP in July 2012. Any member may request a full copy of the GOP handbook from the Secretary.

Combination changes at both ranges Saturday, January 5th, to the easy to read number located on your new membership card. Please use both the combination and keyed locks when leaving the ranges for added security. On the back of your membership card is additional information.

Friends of The NRA will host a dinner/fundraiser at the Mt. Savage Fire Hall Saturday, May 11, 2019, starting at 5:00 pm, for tickets and more information contact club member Bob Barnard at 301-707- 4213 or Scotty Gillespie at 304-738-7087.

Negligent discharges and lack of range safety have happened according to Executive Officer Jim McCullough. Jim brought this to the attention of officers that there are two holes in the post at bench 14 at MSR1 and a .22 caliber hole in the metal roof at bench 16. Most recently a bullet hole was found in the fan tail of the windmill, this last act was considered deliberate. We would like to catch the coward. If you witness any vandalism or unsafe act, a license plate number is all we need. SAFETY is always the FIRST and foremost consideration at the shooting range. Recently, a laminated copy of MSR1 safety regulations has been placed on the table next to the sign in book in the clubhouse. Be alert. Be safe. Always keep the muzzle of your firearm pointed in a safe direction. You are responsible for your actions. The range you save by being involved maybe your own.

Live rounds in trash cans pose danger; we have found numerous live rounds in the trash cans during the seasonal time of year when most of us shoot. Some rounds made it into the burn barrel, much to the surprise of our volunteer help. After they popped, a close inspection of the suspect trash barrel revealed about a dozen additional misfired 22 long rifle cartridges. Please dispose of unwanted or misfired cartridges properly. When you have a misfire, wait for five minutes before you open the action and remove the cartridge. Take the misfired cartridge home with you, pull the bullet, separate the components and render the primer inert by soaking the case in light machine oil. Do not dispose of your unwanted or misfired cartridges in the trash containers at the range.
