WINTER/SPRING 2015

ANNUAL MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The Annual Meeting of the FHRPC was called to order by President, Cliff Bennett; he asked for a minute of silence for our departed brothers this past year they were, Richard J. Smith, John F. Kramph, Sr., Jacob S. Teter and John W. Parrill followed with the Invocation and the Pledge of Allegiance.

The meeting was held at Allegany County for Technical Education (CCTE) in their auditorium on McMullen Highway in Cresaptown, MD. The topics of interest were (1) Proposed By-Law change concerning Life Membership. (2) Revisited project from 2014 for completion of a three foot concrete extension to run the length of the Silhouette Pavilion at WMR2, (3) Revisited project from 2014 for completion of a concrete pad at the picnic area at MSR1. (4) Excavation work at WMR2 (5) A gun raffle for 2015.

PROPOSED BY-LAW CHANGE – LIFE MEMBERSHIP

John Dowell spoke on the need to change or we were heading down a road similar to Social Security where we have a few paying for many. As of this newsletter we have 110 Life members this is 24.5% of the membership and this number continues to grow.

Liability Insurance cost on total membership and membership numbers keep going up and we are charged per member. With attrition, life expectancy of members in 1944 was 63 where as today members can reach into their 80's.

Members were asked to entertain a motion that we have a By-law change and ratification at the 2016 Annual Meeting.

The proposed By-Laws change would affect only those joining the club after 2016.

Current Article 3.2 Life Membership: A Life Member is any member in good standing with twenty-five or more years of continuous membership with the FHRPC. A Life Member is exempt from paying yearly dues.

Proposed change to one of the following options:

- (1) A Life Member is any member in good standing with twenty-five or more years of continuous membership in FHRPC and is at least sixty-five years of age. A Life Member is exempt from paying yearly dues.
- (2) A Life Member is any member in good standing with twenty-five or more years of continuous membership in FHRPC and is at least sixty-five years of age. A Life Member is entitled to a 50% reduction in annual dues.
- (3) Drop the category of Life Membership completely.

If adopted, the change would not affect membership status of any current member, only those joining the club after 2016. All current members will be treated in accordance to current Article 3.2 Life Membership.

At the Officers meeting on March 4th that vacancy was filled pertaining to By-Law Article 7 Officers/7.6 Vacancy. The newly elected Executive Officer, MSR1 is Jim McCullough @ 240-580-4868.

The club officers welcome your feedback. If you have any questions, suggestions, comments or concerns please fill free to contact any of your club officers. ARTICLE 5. DUES

Discussion has been circulating about a possible dues schedule change to Article 5.1 Annual Dues By-Law to facilitate the paying of dues. The current Article 5.1 Annual Dues By-Law reads;

Annual dues must be paid by December 31 of each year with a grace period to the evening of the annual meeting. There will be no late dues accepted, no late payment fees assessed. After the evening of the Annual Meeting a regular member who failed to pay his dues is no longer in good standing and will be dropped from the membership roster.

The proposed By-Law Amendment to Article 5.1 would read;

Annual dues must be paid by December 31st of each year with a grace period to and including January 31st. Dues accepted after December 31st may be assessed a late fee. After January 31st a regular member who failed to pay his dues is no longer in good standing and will be dropped from the membership roster.

SILHOUETTE PAD EXTENSION

Included in the proposed 2015 Budget are improvements to the concrete deck at the Silhouette Pavilion at WMR.

The concrete deck at the Silhouette Pavilion is going to be extended (3.5' X 62') to accommodate for the increase of silhouette shooters. With funding set aside by the league and financial help from the club we will be able to increase the number of participants from 12 to 16 on the firing line. This will allow the league to finish the matches in a timely manner. In the past with three relays we were always in a rush to finish before dusk according to Ed Gaglio, chairman of the Silhouette League.

A motion at the 2014 Annual Meeting was made from the floor and seconded a vote was taken 45 in favor and none against and several sustained from voting. Silhouette pad extension project is a go.

The June 2014 thunderstorm undercut one corner of the concrete deck and cut ruts into the ground where the concrete deck extension was planned for installation, so this delayed the work on this project and pushed it back into the calendar year of 2015.

CONCRETE PICNIC AREA AT MSR1

Included in the proposed 2015 Budget are improvements to the picnic area with an addition of a concrete pad.

The picnic area by the clubhouse that was filled with gravel has become a pain to keep clean of cigarette butts and .22L.R. brass. The gravel getting up on the adjoining concrete pad and in the clubhouse is a nuisance and constantly has to be swept back.

Many members have stated that if this area were concrete it would be easier to work with and keep clean since this is a food prep and eating area. Membership agreed with this proposal at the annual meeting.

A motion at the 2014 Annual Meeting was made from the floor and seconded a vote was taken 45 in favor and none against and several sustained from voting. If finances are available this year, project shall be completed, if not done in 2014 next year.

RANGE DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE MET LAST YEAR AT WMR2

The Range Development Committee met at WMR2 on March 11, 2014 to discuss ways and means and feasibility of adjusting the 600 yard firing line. Present for the meeting were Cliff Bennett, Chris Bennett, John Dowell, Marvin Smith, Danny Jackson and Steve Isner of the Executive Committee. For the members at large Dave Thompson, Allen Shively, Butch Shreves and Jim and Christi McCullough were present.

Allen Shively gave a presentation about Center Fire Bench Rest (CFBR). That CFBR is a growing shooting sport in other areas and believes that there is interest here and would like to see a combination of concrete pad and shooting benches somewhere on the 600 yard firing line berm to entertain this shooting discipline.

After his presentation Allen made a motion to have the Range Development Committee meet with an excavator contractor present at WMR2, his motion was seconded by Walter Shreve. Majority of members present voted to have meeting.

Cliff Bennett stated that we need to look at straightening out the firing line berm before we can consider pouring any concrete.

FYI...Range Development Committee consists of the Executive Committee, chairman from each one of the leagues. If an Executive Committee Officer is also a league chair he must point a substitute to represent the league. Last but not least a "member at large."

EXCAVATION WORK AT WMR2

Included in the proposed 2015 Budget is the need to enlarge the Handicap parking/extra parking/unloading area at WMR2 and to widen the 600-yard berm for the eventual addition of benches has been brought to the attention of the Executive Committee by several members as stated by John Dowell at the annual meeting. The current parking area for the 300-yard covered firing point will be enlarged to create about 8 parking spots. The material excavated from the enlarged parking area will be used for the upgrades to the 600-yard firing line berm. The 600-yard firing line is approximately 590 yards from the pits. The firing line berm will be pushed back to 600 yards, squared up to the pits and leveled off. The excavation is projected to take approximately one week and will take place at the end of the Service Rifle League season.

A motion at last year's 2014 Annual Meeting was made from the floor and seconded, a vote was taken 45 in favor and none against and several sustained from voting. If finances are available this year, project shall be completed; if the work is not done in 2014 then work shall be completed in 2015.

RAFFLE AT THE RENDEZVOUS 2015

President, Cliff Bennett asked the body at the Annual Meeting to direct their thoughts toward a raffle this year and if any members are interested in forming a committee let the officers know. Before the meeting was over Christi & Jim McCullough stated that they would be Chair and Co-Chair respectively for the 2015 Gun Raffle Rendezvous.

Christi & Jim were instrumental in the success of the 2014 Gun Raffle at the Rendezvous, and will be using the same format of distributing two $10 raffle tickets per member. This has all the makings of a successful fundraiser.

You are asked to return the completed ticket stub and donation back to us in a timely manner. If for some reason you cannot be involved in this fundraiser, please return the tickets back to us so they may be redistributed.

Just by reading this newsletter, you as a member can see that funds received from this endeavor are going back into the club for all to enjoy. So do your part and buy or sell your two tickets. If you have an outlet where you can sell extra raffle tickets contact, Christi at 240-580-4867 or Jim at 240-580-4868 or email them at bearhillhunter@yahoo.com

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

(Contributed by Norm White)

It was early 1942. The United States was at war with Germany and Japan and only months had passed since the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor. The Maryland National Guard had been mobilized into the United States Army and a State Guard had been created to replace them on the home front. In April, 1942, Maryland Governor Herbert O'Connor gave orders to organize the Reserve Militia of Maryland to be known as the Maryland Minute Men. Company 842, 8th Battalion was created. Joseph Ansel was appointed captain with John Woodyard as 1st lieutenant and Kirk Lathrum as 2nd lieutenant. Raymond Leighty was 1st sergeant. Others in the company were George Knotts, Jay Stimely, Robert Myers, Joseph McDonald and Fred Roberts. The Company-842 Minute Men trained Monday nights in the Penn Avenue School gymnasium. "Bib" Ranck, from the State Guard, was training instructor. The State Guardsmen were uniformed and were issued shotguns. The Minute Men eventually acquired uniforms and provided their own firearms, which were mostly deer rifles and 22-caliber guns. In event of emergency, the Minute Men were to perform guard duty at sensitive points in the city to prevent sabotage. The unit had field training exercises and marched in Memorial Day parades. I joined Company 842 in the fall of 1942. My firearm was a Stevens, single shot, 22-caliber rimfire rifle and, occasionally, a 45-70 trapdoor Springfield rifle.

We had 22-caliber firing practice at the National Guard Armory on Centre Street.

In June, 1944, Governor O'Connor deactivated the Minute Men and transferred all members to the inactive reserve. I was discharged with the rank of Private, First Class (PFC).

Following deactivation, some members of Company 842 wanted to continue their association and proposed forming a rifle club. For this purpose an organizing group was formed consisting of John Woodyard, chairman, Kirk Lathrum, vice chairman, Blair Ullery, treasurer, and Norman White, secretary.

The name Fort Hill Rifle Club was picked, not because it was named after the high school, but because it was a geographical location close to the homes of the members. Another group had already taken the Cumberland Rifle Club name.

Harry Morgan, of Frostburg, provided much help in organizing the club. A minimum of ten members was required to obtain a National Rifle Association charter and the charter was obtained in October, 1944. Early meetings were held at the home of Jay Stimely on South Street.

Other rifle clubs were being organized also. Leo Leasure was captain of Company 843, which became the Cumberland Rifle Club. David H. Durst was captain of Company 845, which became the LaVale Rifle Club. Henry R. Yates was captain of Company 848. He was also a member of the Frostburg Rifle Club, which was formed prior to the war.

Soon after organization of the clubs, a meeting was held at the Gunter Hotel, Frostburg, and the Western Maryland Rifle League was born. A pre-war group had been called the Allegany Rifle League but it was felt that a new name was needed. The Western Maryland League consisted of the Barton, Frostburg, Cold Spring-Westernport, LaVale, Cumberland and Fort Hill clubs. Later clubs were Avilton, Fort Ashby, Mountain Top-Oakland and Allegany Ballistics Lab. As years passed, these clubs lost their ranges or were deactivated and many of their shooters were taken into the Fort Hill Club, which alone persevered and prospered.

In Fort Hill's early years a search for a suitable indoor and outdoor range was conducted. One possibility for an indoor range was the abandoned south Cumberland glass plant, but too many problems existed there. A search for an outdoor range had the committee looking for a site along Williams Road at the Stegmaier orchards, but this also presented formidable problems.

A lucky break happened when Charles Simpson suggested that the O'Neal farm on Morningside Drive be investigated. The Cumberland Outdoor Club had been interested there but had given up after some work had been done. The range committee investigated and came to an agreement with the owner, Mrs. O'Neal. Construction commenced. Initially the range use was by permission, but a few years later the tract was purchased, and the rest is history. At the time of purchase, the club had few funds and money for the purchase was raised by members' donations covered by non-interest bearing notes. These notes were eventually paid off. At the time of purchase, Mrs. O'Neal had arranged for pulp wood to be cut by a contractor, and the club's arrangement with her was that specified tracts of trees adjacent to the range would be spared. Apparently the contractor ignored this arrangement and started cutting everything. The club threatened legal action and all cutting stopped.

The Fort Hill Club and Western Maryland League were incorporated with legal work done by attorney Thomas L. Richards at a very reasonable cost.

The Western Maryland League's first indoor range was constructed in the basement of a bowling alley located in LaVale at the intersection of the National Highway and Vocke Road. After a few seasons there another location was found in the basement of the Bowman's Addition Fire Hall. A range was constructed there and was used by both rifle and pistol leagues for many years. A final move was made to the National Guard Armory range on Brown Avenue.

The Fort Hill Club's outdoor rifle shooting was held on the Western Maryland League's Frostburg Club range off Hoffman Road. Practice shooting was done on the Morningside Drive range.

During the late 1940s or early 1950s the Western Maryland Pistol League was organized and competition outdoor matches were held at Frostburg and eventually at Morningside Drive. Indoor pistol matches were conducted at Bowman's Addition and later at the United States Navy Armory range.

Target firearms were scarce during the early days of the Fort Hill Club's rifle competition but a few Stevens model 416 rifles were obtained from the National Rifle Association. With these and a few Remington model 513T and Winchester model 75 rifles, matches were fired until Winchester model 52 rifles became obtainable in 1947 and 1948.

This completes my remarks on the origin and early days of the Fort Hill Club. I have had a lifetime enjoyment of the shooting sports and have endless satisfaction with my role as an officer in the club. I treasure the many friendships made over the years and it has been a pleasure to be associated with members of the shooting family. My best wishes for continued success of the Fort Hill Club – and stand firm for the Second Amendment.

Foot note;

This historical perspective from Charter Member, Mr. Norman O. White was requested by then Secretary, Martin D. Harsh, III and was received July 2, 2002. Both of these men were dedicated officers and members of this organization indicated by the archives and records that this secretary had the privilege to review and study. Both of these men are gone from our ranks now, but not forgotten, with Norm passing away on October 25, 2011 and Marty (Mad Dog) on December 12, 2013.

Thanks for all the interesting reading and your service,

Marvin Smith
